MARTINIS, LOCAL WINES, SINGLE-MALT SCOTCH ON TAP AT ELK COVE INN

Elk Cove Inn is the rare B&B with a fully licensed bar—in fact, the inn has the only full bar in Elk—and takes full advantage of that status.

The intimate cocktail bar serves not only an array of local wines—Navarro Reserve Chardonnay, Edmeades Zinfandel, Handley Creek Sauvignon Blanc, Husch Cabernet, Greenwood Ridge Gerwurztraminer, Pacific Echo Cremant—but also a broad selection of single-malt Scotches and drinks mixed to order. Martinis are a specialty—inkeepers shake (or stir) up 25 different kinds, all served in signature Z-stemmed glasses. Here's a sampling:

Angel Martini

1 1/2 ounces vodka, 1/2 ounce Frangelico, shaken with ice

Half and Half Martini

3 parts gin, 3 parts vodka, 1 part dry vermouth, twist or olive

Paradise Martini

2 parts Absolut Citron, 1 part orange juice, cherry and orange peel

Queen Elizabeth Martini

1 1/2 ounces vodka, dash vermouth, splash of B&B

Savoy Hotel Special Cocktail #2

2 dashes Dubonnet, 1/2 ounce dry vermouth, 2 ounces dry gin, shaken and served with orange peel

Silver Bullet Martini

1 1/2 ounces vodka, dash dry vermouth, float scotch

The bar is open daily until 9 p.m., but it's busiest around 4 p.m., when the martini flag is hoisted outside the front door and complimentary hot hors d'oeuvres come out of the kitchen.
